

Rank	Short topics (more information often available in the fact sheet)	Country
	Working on the definition of a 'project'	Belgium
	Improving the quality of the applications, i.e that of the non-technical summaries	Hungary
	Examples of changes to a project description that could be agreed upon by e.g. the AWB and/or veterinarian without ethical approval	Belgium
	Project authorization in other EU-Member States, mutual recognition	Germany
	Contact, support, harmonisation etc. of Competent Authorities for project-evaluation and licensing	The Netherlands
	Establishing a seamless online application /authorization system	Hungary
	Diminish the confusion in data reporting (what to count and when)	Hungary
	How are retrospective analyses conducted in your country, by whom and how do you use the results?	Sweden
	What does harmful phenotype cover? / Genetically altered animal lines, severity classification, project authorization, implementation of the 3Rs	Hungary, Germany
	How to promote consistency in the grading of severity within and between jurisdictions / Potential process to harmonize severity evaluation in the EU	United Kingdom, Finland
	LAS Education & Training in Europe. Focus on relationship between E&T in LAS and harmonization of application of EU Directive	Italy
	How does each country regulate education for all functions involved in the work with animals in research?	Sweden
	The feasibility of a common regional, national, European database on research, share the scientific information	Belgium
	How to keep updated on the progress in the various fields of 3R:s, in particular replacement?	Sweden
	How to disseminate this information to animal welfare organs, project review committees etc.	Sweden
	How to find and interact with researchers that may contribute to replacement (and the other R:s)	Sweden
	The transition towards innovative non-animal research: road maps, selecting promising research domains, involving other member states	The Netherlands
	What is done in the fields where we are working in in the other member states and how can we try to accumulate our efforts?	Belgium
	Possibilities for cooperation and harmonisation of defined activities with other member states	The Netherlands
	Considerations on the last President's meeting held in Brussels in the past November	Italy
	Initiatives from the last meeting, how to move on from here – or how to get them started	Denmark
	Special analysis of the activities in the countries that reached the quorum for referendum "Stop Vivisection"	Italy
	How does the use of animals in didactics look like in different member states?	Poland
	Possible needs of member states with the implementation and execution of the EU regulation on the use of animals in science.	The Netherlands
	Feeding of Genetically Altered Animals to other animals	Germany